IMPORTANT NOTICE

Information regarding uploading GIS Data relating to all Recognised Teacher Training Institutions on NCTE Website

This is for information of all those institutions who has already been granted recognition by Eastern Regional Committee for conducting any Teacher Education programme. As per order of Ministry of Human Resource Development, Govt. of India NCTE Headquarters, New Delhi on its website (www.ncte-india.org) home page has created an icon which is mandatory for filling up of GIS information by every teacher training institution. Eastern Regional Committee has earlier published notice on different newspapers and on ERC website (www.ercncte.org) directing the all recognised Teacher Training Institutions to upload their institutional GIS data on NCTE website by 05.01.2016 and its printed hard copy may be submitted to ERC, NCTE. As a result, approximately 723 institutions have uploaded the G.I.S information on ERC website. Here is a question for consideration that till date approximately 649 institutions have not filled up GIS information; however 254 institutions have filled up incomplete GIS data which have been rejected with comments. Only 469 institutions have been uploaded on NCTE website considering complete information, although this information is mandatory to be filled up by all institutions.

For getting information regarding G.I.S, though this message, all the Teachers Training Institutions are directed to be present on the G.I.S MELA scheduled to be started from 06.01.2016 to 22.02.2016 (schedule attached with this notice) in the Office of ERC, NCTE, Bhubaneswar. The institutions are required to confirm participation of their authorised representative along with all the G.I.S related information on the date of MELA and ensure that the same are uploaded on NCTE's website. A schedule (State/District-wise) has been prepared on the basis of address of the institution (copy enclosed) with all mentioned facts/information/documents to be filled/provided by the institution. Through this message, the institutions are also required to confirm that complete G.I.S. information of their institution has already been uploaded on NCTE Website by which the institution can prevent itself from any further action against it.
